This is an update of the Romp with Pomp bibliography issued in July 2005.

“Pomp” is the nickname William Clark gave the baby boy born to Sacagawea. His real name was Jean Baptiste Charbonneau and he accompanied the expedition from Fort Mandan to the Pacific and back.

Call numbers for many of these items are in the process of being updated. Please check the Washington State Library catalog <http://www.secstate.wa.gov/library/> to see if an item’s call number has changed. Books are available for checkout and interlibrary loan unless the call number begins with R (reference) or RARE. These are in special collections and are available “for in-library use only” at the Washington State Library.

WR denotes a book selected by Washington State Librarian Jan Walsh for her Washington Reads program. “Lewis, Clark, and Seaman” was her theme for winter 2004. To read Ms. Walsh’s comments about the book go to: http://www.secstate.wa.gov/library/wa_reads.aspx Her comments can also be found by clicking on the Washington Reads link in the record for the book in the Library’s online catalog.

Many titles have annotations in quotes. These annotations are from the Washington State Library’s online catalog.
